

Overview

Written by Administrator
Monday, 30 May 2011 14:51

Chaplaincy is a critical area of American society where the religious needs of Muslims must be addressed on parity of other faith groups.

As chaplains, Muslims have the opportunity to contribute to the public discourse on ethical and spiritual concerns and challenges facing diverse populations.

The Muslim Chaplains Association web site is a resource for Muslim chaplains, for chaplains of all faiths who address the needs of Muslims in their institutions and for everyone interested in learning about Muslim Chaplains.